DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 6, 2017, Rebecca Eugley filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") as a result of an influenza ("flu") vaccine administered on October 22, 2016. (Petition at 1, 4-5). On November 6, 2019, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. (ECF No. 64).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated January 14, 2020 (ECF No. 70), requesting a total award of $62,585.07 (representing $60,599.10 in fees and $1,985.97 in costs). In accordance with General Order #9 Petitioner filed a

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

signed statement indicating that he incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 70-3). Respondent reacted to the motion the same day indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 71). Petitioner then filed his reply requesting the entry of a decision awarding the requested amount in full. (ECF No. 72).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

ANALYSIS

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009). A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011).

The petitioner "bears the burden of establishing the hours expended, the rates charged, and the expenses incurred." Wasson v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. at 482, 484 (1991). The Petitioner "should present adequate proof [of the attorney's fees and costs sought] at the time of the submission." Id. at 484 n.1. Petitioner's counsel "should make a good faith effort to exclude from a fee request hours that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary, just as a lawyer in private practice ethically is obligated to exclude such hours from his fee submission." Hensley, 461 U.S., at 434.

A. Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests the following rates of compensation for the work of her attorneys: for Mr. Altom Maglio, $362.00 per hour for work performed in 2017; and for Mr. Isaiah Kalinowski, $358 for work performed in 2017, $368 for work billed in 2018, and $383 for work billed in 2019. (ECF No. 70-1 at 35). Petitioner also requests rates ranging from $105.00 per hour to $154.00 per hour for paralegal work, depending on the individual paralegal and the year of the work. (Id.). The rates requested are consistent with what Maglio Christopher and Toale, PA attorneys and paralegals have been awarded for their work in the Vaccine Program. Accordingly, no adjustment to the requested rates is necessary.

For time billed in 2020, Mr. Kalinowski is requesting the increased rate of $405.00 per hour for his time billed and the rate of $160 for time billed by his paralegals. Based on my experience I find the requested increase for time billed in 2020 to be reasonable and award it herein.

ATTORNEY COSTS

Petitioner requests $1,985.97 in overall costs. (ECF No. 70-2 at 1). This amount is comprised of obtaining medical records, travel costs and the Court's filing fee. I have reviewed all of the requested costs and find the overall amount to be reasonable and shall award it in full.

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $62,585.07 (representing $60,599.10 in fees and $1,985.97 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
